Let's get acquainted

28 Aug 1982

by Ruby Compton

Mr. and Mrs. Evan Probst

When I asked Dezzie if I could interview her for this article, she informed me that her husband, Evan N. Probst, would be unable to attend the session as he would be away doing farm work, but she would inform me as I inquired about him. As we discussed Dezzie first, I will proceed in that order.

Dezzie Clegg Probst is the daughter of Henry H. and Sadie (Sarah Francis) Davis Clegg; she was born on June 23, 1934 in Heber City, Utah. Dezzie has two older sisters, Cora Bartell (deceased) and Eulene who married Joe Hicken from Tabiona -- they now live in Orem, Utah. She has an older brother, Dan, now living in Casa Grande, Ariz., and a younger brother, Jerry, of Salt Lake City.

Dezzie attended the Central Elementary school and graduated from Wasatch High school. While attending school, she became interested in 4-H Club, played flute in the band, enjoyed athletics, was on the girls basketball team, was active in Hyrum Bates, they live in Kaysville too. Boyd married Elena Graham. Emery married Marjory Buckley, they live in Live Oak, Calif.; Geniel married Ed Bartholomew. Evan married Dezzie Clegg, they live in Midway, Ut. Kyle married Paula Cushing, they live in Midway, Ut.; Paul married Joyce Cluff, they live in Heber City, Ut. Janice married Eddie Hansen, they live in Sandy, Utah.

Evan was born in Midway, Ut. and went to high school at Wasatch High until he transferred his studies to the Vocational School in Provo, Utah; there, he studied blacksmithing and metal work. After graduating, he went to California to work for Max Johnson, on a cattle ranch at Wheeland, near Marysville, California. He returned to Midway in 1963. Evan was introduced to Dezzie Clegg by Arvil and Dove McAfee and became interested in one another.

They courted for one year. On the day before their marriage, they started building their first home. Evan Nephi and Dezzie Clegg Probst were married on July 17, 1964 in the LDS Salt Lake

Mr. and Mrs. Evan Probst

Dezzie Clegg Probst is the daughter of Henry H. and Sadie (Sarah Francis) Davis Clegg. She was born on June 23, 1936, in Heber City, Utah. Dezzie has two older sisters, Cora Bartell (deceased) and Eulene who married Joe Hicken from Tabiona -- they now live in Orem, Utah. She has an older brother, Dan, now living in Casa Grande, Ariz., and a younger brother, Jerry, of Salt Lake City.

Dezzie attended the Central Elementary school and graduated from Wasatch High school. While attending school, she became interested in 4-H Club, played flute in the band, enjoyed athletics, was on the girls basketball team, was active in debate, belonged to girls Athletic Association and did a lot of intramural work.

After graduation from Wasatch High School, she was selected as a 1956 4-H Club Congress winner, and was sent to Chicago. This trip to the National Club Congress was sponsored by some civic groups. That year, she also won the 4-H State Preparation Contest and won a savings bond.

Dezzie attended the BYU for one year and spent the next two years working at Mawhinney's bus stop and cafe. She was working for the Bell Telephone Company when she was chosen as an Exchange Student for the IFYE (International Farm Youth Exchange Program). Dezzie was chosen through 4-H activity, which was sponsored by Utah State University and Lion's Clubs of the State of Utah, and in 1958 on this exchange student program was sent to England, Wales, and Scotland. During the six months away, she lived in 20 homes while touring these areas. She was away from March to Sept. of 1958.

In March of 1959, Dezzie was called to fill a mission to the Southern Far East. At that time, the mission was comprised of Guam, Philippine Islands, Taiwan and Hong Kong and several other South Eastern Asian countries. However, Dezzie spent 18 months in Taiwan, the first three months were with her first companion, Ester Julia Smith; after that, her companions were native Chinese converts to the church. The other six months were spent in Hong Kong where she had both occidental and oriental companions in her work.

Her time in the far East completed, Dezzie returned to Utah and was employed by Bell Telephone Co. to work in Murray, Utah. In the spring of 1962, she came home to Heber City to work for Doctor Jack D. Boggess' office.

Shortly after coming home, she met Evan Nephi Probst through mutual friends.

Evan was born July 31, 1936, in Midway. He was one of ten children born to Nephi and Beth Beck Probst. 1 - Grant married Barbara McAfee, they live in Kaysville, Ut. Faye married and went to high school at Wasatch High until he transferred his studies to the National School in Provo, Utah; there, he studied blacksmithing and metal work. After graduating, he went to California to work for Max Johnson, on a cattle ranch at Wheeland, near Marysville, California. He returned to Midway in 1963. Evan was introduced to Dezzie Clegg by Arvil and Dove McAfee and became interested in one another.

They courted for one year. On the day before their marriage, they started building their first home. Evan Nephi and Dezzie Clegg Probst were married on July 17, 1964 in the LDS Salt Lake Temple.

Their new home was finished in one year; during this time, Evan worked as a plumbers apprentice with Wilburn Huffaker, of Midway, he was in this work when he and Dezzie were married. They have lived in Midway all their married life. There are two children: Sandra is married to Thomas B. Shupe, and lives in Liberty, Utah, where they operate a dairy farm, they have two girls. Kenneth married Vickie Youd, they have a boy and a girl and live in Midway, Utah. Kenneth is a plumber and helps Evan on the farm. They lease ground in Heber, Midway and Charleston; they also own ground out in "the Basin" that they farm.

Dezzie has worked with the 4-H for 18 years, teaching more than 20 different subjects during that time. She has worked for the School District for several years. After quitting there, Dezzie went into ceramics. For seven years she has been a Utah State Coordinator for World Experience on International High School Students Exchange Program. She has placed several students in our own area.

In 1980, the Exchange Students program sent Dezzie to Europe with one of the directors of the program. She helped to coordinate the program in England, Germany and Switzerland.

Dezzie and Evan have worked on many fair committies; this year, Dezzie was in charge of the new addition to the county fair, the Flea Market, which turned out to be a good addition, indeed, quite a success. Dezzie and Evan have done much to further the 4-H activities in Wasatch County. Last Sept. she was chosen one of three from the state to attend a seminar in Washington, D.C., sponsored by Campbell's Soup. Dezzie spent 10 days there learning many new things she has brought back and has implemented into our own county organization.

Presently, Dezzie is engaged in teaching porcelain and ceramic classes, she enjoys making reproductions of the old-fashioned dolls. She also dries flowers and makes many bridal bouquets.

Evan is Second Counselor in the Midway 3rd Ward Bishopric, he is good in this position and his church work is very important to him. He is very happy in his farm work and loves to see it prosper from his loving care.

Both Evan and Dezzie have proven to be willing to lend a helping hand when they have been asked to do so.

Nurses' Aide, Frances Reynolds, Retires

18 May 1988

Frances Reynolds has retired from service as a nurses' aide at Wasatch County Hospital where she has worked for the last 14 years. Prior to working there she had worked at the Bingham Hospital and the old Heber Hospital.

She recalls her years at the old Heber Hospital saying, "It was really different then. I gave shots and medications and did everything for only 50 cents an hour. We never heard of a law suit."
